

Let's talk about...

GENERATION GAP!

What is a generation gap?

A generation gap or generational gap is a difference of opinions between one generation and another regarding beliefs, politics, or values. In today's usage, generation gap often refers to a perceived gap between younger people and their parents or grandparents.

Explain these words in English.

- rebel
- rebellious
- open-minded
- understanding
- obey/ disobey the rules
- quarrel
- fall out with
- tease somebody
- call somebody names
- a tomboy
- a bookworm

Answer the questions:

1. Have you ever felt a generation gap with your friends?
2. How do you overcome the generation gap?
3. When do you feel the generation gap the most?
4. Is it possible to overcome a generation gap?
5. At what point in life does the generation gap seem to be the largest?
6. Some people think it is OK to marry a much older man but not a much older woman? Do you agree?
7. Is it possible for parents and children to be friends? Or for people of different generations to be friends?
8. Do you think older people are boring?
9. If you could give one important message to the next generation, what would it be?
10. Do you feel your parents don't understand you because of a generation gap?

Describe the photos!

What do they have in common?

- Do you get on well with your grandparents?
- Do you ever ask them for advice?

Describe the photos!

What do they have in common?

- How would you feel if your boss was younger than you?
- Would you consider marrying a much younger/older man/ woman?

Do you agree?

'If I were given the opportunity to present a gift to the next generation, it would be the ability for each individual to learn to laugh at himself.'

- Charles M. Schulz

Do you agree?

'All generations have similar values; they just express them differently.'

- Unknown

Do you agree?

'Generation gap is not painful if there is no communication gap.'

- Unknown