

1. How do people prepare for Easter?

2. How do different countries celebrate Easter Monday, and what are some common customs associated with this day?

Set 1

A

B

The commercialization of Easter has overshadowed its true meaning and significance.

Would you rather:

bake hot cross buns from scratch to enjoy on Good Friday or indulge in a variety of store-bought Easter chocolates and treats?

speaking corner
by Weronika Ostachowska

1. How do you think Easter celebrations have changed over the years, both culturally and religiously?

2. How do Easter traditions reinforce family bonds and community connections?

Set 2

A

B

Easter egg hunts are an enjoyable tradition that adds excitement to the holiday for children.

Would you rather:

attend a sunrise Easter service followed by a quiet morning brunch or join a lively Easter parade with colorful costumes and music?

speaking corner
by Weronika Ostachowska

1. What are some common Easter traditions practiced in your family or community?
2. What are some Easter-related crafts or activities that families can do together?

Set 3

A

B

Decorating Easter eggs is a creative and fun activity for people of all ages to enjoy during the Easter season.

Would you rather:

get splashed with water during the Wet Monday celebration or have a water balloon fight on Easter Sunday?

speaking corner
by Weronika Ostachowska

1. Can you share a personal Easter memory or tradition that is special to you?
2. Can you explain the symbolism behind the Palm Sunday and its significance in the Christian faith?

Set 4

A

B

Attending Easter Sunday church service is an essential part of celebrating Easter for those who observe the religious aspect of the holiday.

Would you rather:

participate in a traditional Easter egg hunt or compete in an egg race where you have to balance an egg on a spoon?

speaking corner
by Weronika Ostachowska